

Arts For the Schools and North Tahoe Arts are pleased to present:
Expressive Art Workshop Series for Placer County Residents
Come find the artist within YOU (every one has one!)

This workshop series is part of the Innovations Grant which is funded by Placer County and administered by the Tahoe Truckee Community Foundation. It is open to all Placer County residents ages 13 through Adults. The workshops are being provided at no cost to participants as the grant covers all expenses.

Participants may attend all of the workshops which are conducted by professional artists, or select workshops individually. Each workshop will be held twice, one in the evening and one during the day. Participants may select the time that works best for them. Snacks and beverages will be provided at each workshop.

January WORKSHOP Watercolor Painting with Professional Artist Anke Hass

LOCATION: Rideout Community Center

740 Timberland Lane - Tahoe City, CA (1 mile past Sunnyside on the right)

Thursday, Jan 26th 5PM – 8PM

Friday, Jan 27th 10 AM – 1PM

Please RSVP to North Tahoe Arts at 530-581-2787 or info@northtahoearts.com.
In order to ensure we have enough materials please RSVP by, January 20th

Workshops will be conducted by artists with their own unique approach and style. At the end of each workshop you will have created your own work of art! Artists will present a project that can be repeated and adapted to you, giving you a tool that can be replicated at home for years to come. Throughout the workshop we will look at how creative art activities can be used to increase personal and family well-being by giving us an outlet to express ourselves in a positive and meaningful way.

Anke Hass – January's Workshop Artist Bio

Anke is a professional artist trained at the Bergische University. Anke is also an artist in residence for Arts For the Schools and works extensively training adults in the art of painting and drawing. Anke's work can be viewed at www.artsfortheschools.org She looks forward to helping you find your inner artist in January!

An introduction by art and wellness intern Alice Baldwin will be provided at each workshop, and she will also be on hand to discuss the many benefits of artwork which can be part of everyone's life, from the professional, to the laborer, to the homemaker and everyone in between. Please join us for this remarkable opportunity to learn from professional artists art forms which can be practiced in your homes.

Additional Workshops will be held in March and June and will include instruction by professional artists working in Clay, Paint and Poetry. For more information contact Raine Howe at Arts For the Schools 530-582-8278
