Longtime TCPUD parks and rec director retires

Special to the Sun

Bob Bolton, director of parks and recreation for the Tahoe City Public Utility District, retired Friday, Jan. 20, after 29 years of public service.

Bolton began his career as a seasonal parks lead-worker in April 1988 and quickly promoted up the ranks to Parks and Recreation Superintendent in 1998.

A year later he accepted a promotion with the Truckee-Donner Recreation & Parks District, and was then recruited back to TCPUD as director of parks and recreation six years later.

As director of Parks and Recreation, Bolton oversaw more than $24 million in major capital improvements on projects such as: the Lakeside Bike Trail, the Tahoe City Golf Course acquisition, Winter Sports Park creation, Lake Forest Boat Ramp Rehabilitation, Homewood Bike Trail, Tahoe City Ice Rink and many more.

Among other accomplishments, Bolton opened Ride-out as a community center and instituted numerous special events, including the

COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Truckee to host One Billion Rising event

Staff report

On Feb. 14, community members will gather to dance in downtown Truckee as part of the global One Billion Rising campaign to end violence against women and girls.

One Billion Rising is the biggest mass action to end violence against women in human history. The campaign, launched on Valentine's Day 2013, began as a call to action based on the staggering statistic that 1 in 3 women on the planet will be beaten or raped during her lifetime. With the world population at 7 billion, this adds up to more than 1 billion women and girls.

The Truckee/Tahoe community has been gathering to perform the One Billion Rising Flash Mob since 2014 and continues to welcome anyone interested in this positive and empowering event. The choreography will be taught at Inner-Rhythms Dance Centre on Sunday, Feb. 12, from 1-2 p.m. The class is free and no experience is necessary. The choreography can also be learned online at www.OneBillionRising.org.

The Flash Mob is scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 3:30 p.m. in downtown

Truckee, in front of the train station. For more info, email Jennie Pitts Knipe at Jennie.pitts@gmail.com.
